

Declaration of Contamination

In order to protect our employees as well as our equipment, we need information from you on the application for which the returned goods were used. The enclosed declaration is compulsory and binding and may only be completed and signed by authorised personnel.

Returned goods must be accompanied by a completed and signed declaration in order for Festo to perform an inspection and fault analysis. We reserve the right to reject shipments that do not meet this requirement.

Please only ship parts when expressly requested to do so.

You will receive details of the delivery address with the returns request.
